Meetmoi: 10 people

Nomi: 18 people

Furniture Update:

-New desks got in on Friday and Alex has been assembling (the sawhorses are visible in the picture). I will help too. Could install by Wed--let me know if you want them in before then.

-We haven't moved the bar to its proper location yet. Wilson says he needs the approval from Norman; however I could probably just get a few devs together this evening to help me do it.

-Washing machine-- Alex and Norman will sort out installation options tomorrow and make final order.

Noise:

During construction hours it's pretty loud with drilling, etc.

Conf Rooms:

Norman says maybe part of the conference rooms will be usable by the end of the week but they will not be finished until at least next week.

Otherwise the space is looking a bit post-apocalyptic--boxes and wires everywhere (see images).

Attached is a movie of a half-perimeter, walking clockwise but reversed because of mirror image.

It's like Da Vinci's diary--must watch in a mirror.

Let me know if there's anything else you'd like to see.

Cool. Progress. Keep Alex moving on tidying it all up

I am pressing Norman on our conf rooms

What's with all the weird floor lamps... I guess MM has a collection
