David

We are going to make a push to make habitable for 10 people by Monday

Shelby will tour with a lady's eye on Thursd with you. Please coordinate.

Lets get our taskrabbits fired up (or your friends). Just buy two power drills and some beers for Friday. We can pay them...

Desks whiteboard shelves

We have to get those chairs ordered asap.

Thanks Amol--I can hire two people for $154 with their own tools.

Buy 10 chairs or 21?

Hi David,

1pm is great. See you there. If you want some furniture recommendations, I have a few. I also know a company that does furniture rentals if you're interested.

Let me know,

Shelby

Shelby

Discussed the details with norman today and planned all the furniture etc. thinking Tuesday highly likely and monday possible. Depends on if they finish varnishing.

Shelby

We are buying some furniture etc and we will share it with you but you are renting space, not a furnished office like at MicroOffice. Make sure you guys are prepared to get your own stuff if you don't like what we provide.

Our general plan of attack is have a bunch of "ok" tables and chairs. Then we will spend August getting it up to super stylish beautifulness.

Thanks Amol. I'm going to come by tomorrow for another look at the space to determine if we can send our engineering team over. Let me know how else I can help.

Cheers,
Shelby

Ah. No problem. What I really want to see is the space once the desks are in so that I can see the spatial relations. Maybe it's better if I come on Tuesday instead?

The desks are built so after hours Monday could work but Tuesday is better. Just have a few guys show up and if they want to retreat to Micro Office they can
