I ordered 26 desks in all white (That was the most I could get at this time). Perhaps we can split the costs 16/10 since we wont be using them all that long.

The earliest I could have them delivered is Wednesday the 24th, so I will make sure that I am at W 17th for the delivery. If anyone has a problem with this, please let me know IMMEDIATELY so that I can adjust the order.

Thanks and looking forward to the new sunny space,
Shelby

Hey Shelby,

To whom shall I give the key to the room?

Probably me. How late will you be in the office today. If you're leaving before 7, I can swing by in the morning.

Thanks,
Shelby

Also, what's the status on garbage cans? Is that something I need to order?

Keys: I can meet you here at 7pm if that's ok. Essentially, the last to leave should have a set.

Garbage cans: wouldn't hurt to have one more large can for the bathroom.

Hey Guys,

Marc and I were talking, and it might be better if I switch the desk order to these: <http://www.ikea.com/us/en/catalog/products/S69932645/>

They are the same price and there might be more legroom. Please let me know ASAP because the longer we wait, the harder it is for me to change the order.

I hear you on legroom. I might be taller than marc. Having owned a bunch of these ikea desks over time I have found those straight leg models are Wobblies and the table heights are all skewiff. If you want to switch like 5 to the other style for our giants go for it but I recommend the Eiffel Tower base for the rest.

No Marc cc

Also they are much more work to assemble. Like 18 screws per desk on those. The Eiffel Tower base is simpler

Ahhh....so this is a stability issue. I look at them and thought they looked like a bunch of fold out tables not desks

They will be nice.

PS your guys are populating the space a bit haphazardly. I think the Boss should come lay it out to make efficient use of worktables/joint spaces

Maybe next week when the desks come
